Meet a new kind of working dog: the eco dog! These heroic hounds team up with wildlife scientists to help save endangered animals and habitats all over the world. Using their super sense of smell, eco dogs track down invasive species, collect samples from endangered animals, and stop the smuggling of rare animals. These dogs have helped protect animals like grizzly bears, sea turtles, and cheetahs! It takes a special kind of dog to do this kind of work, however. Only a dog that has lots of energy, good concentration, and enjoys working with a trainer has what it takes to become an eco dog. Packed with real-life stories and dramatic, full-color photos of eco dogs at work, this book is sure to be a favorite of dog lovers everywhere.

Good Children's Book

By Voltman

This is well illustrated with photographs and delivers clear information about Eco Dogs and the work they do. My kids enjoyed it and so did I. I wish there were more books about Eco Dogs out there, but this book is one of the very few.

A Cool Book About Cool Dogs

By E. Kennen

I had never heard of "Eco Dogs" before seeing this book. They are working dogs who use their incredible sense of smell to track things in nature. They might find Burmese pythons (an invasive species in the Everglades that needs to be removed) or sniff out sea turtle nests (so scientists can protect the eggs). They work in airports to help capture animal smugglers. They can point to the scat of elusive animals like tigers, or most amazingly of all, orcas (killer whales) under the sea. How's that for a good sense of smell?

ECO DOGS was a fun, interesting book. I appreciated learning that high-strung shelter dogs (who love nothing more than being outdoors, sniffing around all day) are often used for the job. I also appreciated the insights on training and rewarding the dogs.

Bearport Publishing specializes in creating high-interest, easy-to-read nonfiction. ECO DOGS belongs to a 20-book series about "Dog Heroes" for middle school students. If you have a kid in your life who loves nature and dogs, they are sure to want to learn about eco dogs.
