Made To Love You says it all. 5 Stars

By Kerri~SixChicksBooks

I am a huge fan of Megan's Love Series, so when I got the opportunity to read MTLY I was all over it. Jaylinn and Cooper are just amazing together and I was so glad to see them finally get their HEA. This is book 5 in the series and I definitely recommend reading the first four books before reading this as all of the characters are in all of the books.

The title of this book really says it all. Cooper was made to love Jaylinn, and she was made to love Cooper. They might be one of my favorite fictional couples ever after reading this installment in the Love series. The obstacles that crossed their path did nothing but make them stronger, as people and as a couple. And that might be one of my favorite things about this book. There wasn't any unnecessary drama, but rather real life situations that real people are faced with every day, proving that true love can conquer all.

As I said earlier, there are plenty of situations in this book that people in real life face every day. Some of them happy, and some of them sad. Me personally, I bawled my eyes out the last 2 chapters. You feel for these characters like they are YOUR family, and that is just one of the reasons that I think Megan is a phenomenal writer. She has the ability to make you feel connected to the characters on a personal level.

All of our favorite boys and girls make their appearances in Made To Love You, including Eli. We get to see Mason and Hailey's wedding which was nice. Also, I'm going out on a limb here and making an assumption that something may be in the works for Jackson and Chloe as well! (how exciting)

You will need tissues for this book, no doubt about it. But I promise you it is worth it! Jaylinn and Cooper are perfect together. They go through so much but the tears are worth the happy ending. This is a series you don't want to miss out on. Bravo, Megan heart wrenching , sweet, cuddly, warm weather with a slight breeze kind of book!

By Kindle and Me

5 heart wrenching , sweet, cuddly, warm weather with a slight breeze, Made To Love You stars!

I never really got attached or cared a lot about Jaylinn or Cooper before. I don't know why. But I knew that Megan Smith would make me love them and she did! I have never been disappointed in any of her books and I still haven't. She writes with a lot of passion. But to forewarn you, you will need at LEAST one box of Kleenex to get through this book because of the emotional rollercoaster you go through reading it. I cried through ½ of the book. It took me twice as long to read it because I had to keep stopping to get myself together and be able to see without the blur my tears were causing. There are both really happy and some major sad tears, like the life altering ones that are happy and sad. But I am blaming Megan Smith for my massive headache from crying.

Let me share something else. Megan Smith knows that I work in a hospital as a nurse and had asked me some questions. I asked one of the Doctors here some of her questions and I don't know how Megan Smith did it, but she got that particular Doctor's personality down to a T and I could hear this Doctor saying and doing everything that Megan wrote. And she never met this Doctor! She had everything that happens in a hospital down to a T too like getting a pain assessment and the white board in the room. It was utterly amazing!

Baseball for me is okay, I like it for the experience more than the baseball game. But when she wrote about it, I could visualize it and smell it even! The descriptions down to the grass made me feel as if I were there! Play by Play I could see it all!

There are so many things I want to say about the book but it would be a spoiler for you!

I hope there is another book about Jackson and Chloe. I need to know what is happening with them. Megan usually writes a major cliffhanger so you know there is another one but there wasn't one this time.

So if you love the weather, baseball, sorrow and joy, weddings (Mason and Hailey), family, crying while reading, and a good love story than go no further (but you should read them in order). This is definitely one of my all time favorite series ever!! I know my review is short but if I said any more it would be a spoiler and you really need to read it!

Life is full of curve balls, Make sure you swing when the time is right. Get ready for Cooper and Jaylinn again!

By Jordan Potter

Megan Smith you have done it again! I have loved the first books and now this one is so good also! You have shown throughout all of the books how each character has grown but the story that is told is amazing.

Cooper is one of a kind, he is sweet, loving, and can be an a*s all at the same time. Jaylinn is his perfect match; she reads romance (always a plus in my book), can be sassy and can match Cooper perfectly. You saw in the previous book how their story started and now you get the middle and the end! They face several difficult situations and my heart hurt for both of them. They come together through it all and it makes them both stronger together and apart. You get to see everyone again in this book, Hunter and Jaylinn's relationships has struggles in the beginning but they get over it and come together for each other. They are all a strong unit. Both families are amazing. I really enjoyed seeing everyone back together again and getting to see how they all are.

This is one of my favorite series and I cannot wait for the next book! If you haven't read anything by Megan Smith stop right now and go get her first book Trying Not to Love You. You will not want to put it down! You will fall in love, hurt when they hurt, and everything in between! Again Megan you did an amazing job and cannot wait for more to come!
