When dealing with the powers of magick, it is imperative that practitioners learn how to defend themselves from malicious forces. This short work provides the foundation for all varieties of magickal protection, delivered in a simple and easy to understand manner.

This book will present the student with many different spells and practices designed to defend against everything from direct magickal attacks to the presence of malevolent astral beings. Instructions for shielding, banishment spells, binding spells, counteroffensive magick, and the creation of many types of defensive charms and objects are given, along with several advanced concepts that the practitioner may put to good use in further developing his or her abilities with defensive magick.

Learn something new every day

By Christine Smith

Practitioners of inexperienced practicing should be careful not to tread on negative impacts until they've received the training and the time that it takes to shield themselves as well as whomever their working with. Other than that, the book was well written and plotted thoroughly as well as understandable. It did contain some information that helped me to recall something that I had forgotten and searching for. Altogether, much thanks to the author. Blessed Be

Very useful

By Brigham Smith

I liked that it was easy enough for anyone to understand. Although some materials were a bit strange, it's to be expected.
