Review

Praise for the first edition:

"A major landmark in the teaching of British politics which should become the standard student text for the early 21st century. Comprehensive, accessible, engaging and highly innovative, it provides a judicious mix of theory, analysis and substance complemented by highly creative and meticulously researched illustrative material throughout. Moran brings British politics alive as never before." -- Professor Colin Hay, University of Birmingham, UK

"Authoritative yet clear and accessible: written by a leading expert this is the best new textbook on British politics for many years." -- Professor Wyn Grant, University of Warwick, UK

"Drawing on the latest research Michael Moran provides a powerful new framework for understanding the way Britain is governed. It will be essential reading for all students of British politics." -- Professor Andrew Gamble, University of Sheffield, UK

"[An utterly reliable guide to British politics. The combination of range, fluency of style, theoretically-informed insights render it an impressive compendium of British politics." -- Eric Shaw, THES
