Excellent contemporary Christmas romance

By Margaret M. McGovern

Excellent book. I got this book as a part of the 10 Brides of Christmas that was put together. The story is great! Mandy went to France to escape a problem she felt was dishonest of her family. She tried to hide but met Richard who is a chef who owns his own popular restaurant. Maddie comes from a very wealthy family so at first Richard is uncomfortable with her needing a bodyguard but eventually comes to terms with it.

Richard and Maddie fall in love but Richard grows worried because she won't contact her family. Due to this even though Richard loves Maddie he feels she needs to go home and deal with her family problems. I won't ruin the story but it is very enjoyable short story. Definitely a good Christmas story. I've read several of this author's books and enjoyed them all. I look forward to reading more of Ms Cardello's books.

Amazing short read

By Tina Brimlow

Thinking back through all of Ruth's books I didn't realized we never got to read Maddy's story. I am a bad fan. Anyway its a short read but its so worth it. It had the excitement you get from a much longer story.

Richard oh he was a hot French man and a cook to boot. When he first met Maddy that attraction was dead on. He was strong and hardheaded and Maddy was perfect for him.

Maddy, who doesn't love Maddy? She is a sweet heart. She was bothered by a secret that she was forced to keep only to run into her sexy French man. She made him realize that family is all about love.

I rate this book 5 stars but that is only because we are not offered to give 10. I so recommend this short read. You'll laugh and cry and really enjoy Maddy's story.
