SEE THE GIFT, NOT THE CURSE: A PERSONAL JOURNEY TO DISCOVER ME, AND THAT I AM LOVE AND LIGHT. BY YVONNE CLOETE PDF

Growing up, I considered every single thing that happened in my life as a curse. I saw it as me being punished for "something" because I felt not good enough. I felt abandoned and not loved. I was in a state of separation, of loneliness, of constant fear of what others would think of me. I gave more and more of myself, being who they wanted me to be for them, so they would love me and not abandon me. Now I know, that all of this is from, and living within, and being, in the frequency energy of fear. I learned that Earth has a fixed curriculum of "Duality," and that we are here to learn about the two fixed energies. I learned we had to start at the darkness first. We had to start at separation, survival, loneliness, fear, etc., which is the opposite of where we are from, to experience Source in form (physical matter). As humans our reminder of this duality is there every morning in the mirror staring back at us, when we wake up from sleep. We see two eyes. Just as we know tonight there will be darkness to go to sleep to wake up to light, after that 24-hour cycle. What if Earth has a 2500-year cycle and darkness was first, and then there was light? With the help from many teachers, guides and loved ones in the natural and in spiritual form, I began to take a serious look at what I was thinking and internalizing, ('thought' being the beginning point, Source, male energy and internal ~ you'll learn more about in the book) to move away from the darkness towards love and light. So my reason for writing this book, is to bring awareness through my own personal discovery of asking many questions, which was all, answered, to find the courage to not join into the frequency of darkness where fear, hate, discrimination, destruction, war, rape, killings, separation etc., still currently exists. I was shown that if we can all find the courage to force ourselves within the frequency of light where love, (and all that which is opposite of fear) exists rather than feed

Yvonne is one the most authentic and very graceful women I have ever known, she is literally personification of Divine love and is blessed with such deep understanding of how life operates through the unseen, inconceivable aspects of Divine play . Much of it is only possible when one is a sincere, committed and disciplined seeker of truth and faithfully follows the light and guidance from within. Her book "see the gift and not the curse" speaks very honestly as I have known Yvonne and reflects the same core values in the way she lives with others and her relationship with the source

I am ever so grateful for her high uplifting association that is vividly unique

Interesting read!

By Carolyn

Although we have extremely different backgrounds I found Yvonne to be very relatable. She felt as if she was cursed due to some of her life experiences, even though they were different situations at times I felt as if I was reading about myself. She had inspired me to find my own gifts and stop thinking I too am cursed! She includes some poetry which were just absolutely beautiful. She has taken some complicated issues and made them seem so simple. Her experiences and learning of her abilities were fascinating to read about! I also learned of some new paranormal phenomenon I never knew of! Very easy read! I do recommend!

This book brings a new perception into seeing life, our past experiences and everything that happens to us. Yvonne's way of sharing her open heart view gives us hope and shines some light into how to transform and outgrow our deepest wounds and fears. It's a book, a shared life experience that invites in a lovingly way to embrace, transcend and empower ourselves into a life beyond what we see and think; taking us into a journey of SELF remembrance.
